maha visitor Thursday.

J. W. Taylor drove over from Stella Sunday, to view the ruins.

We are needing wood. Let our deslinquent subscribers take notice.

May Gaitner is quite sick with scarlet fever, but is some better today.

For only 25 cents we will send THE ADVERTISER until January 1st, 1896.

Uncle Ben Coon, of Stella, was the guest of Moses Banks several days this week.

Mrs. John B. Seid has our thanks for some nice sweet potatoes presented us Monday.

Fred Seabury is building a new chimney on Mrs. Hill's millinery establishment.

Os Scovill has been carrying the star route mail for three or four weeks, having taken the contract again.

Miss Pearl Finch, of Brownville, was the guest of Mrs. W. W. Sanders from Saturday evening until Monday afternoon.

J. H. Littleh bought the Nemaha Confectionery Wednesday, and is in business again, only being out of business four days.

Chas. T. Minick came up from Table Rock Wednesday, to attend the wedding of Paul Argabright and Miss Lula Elliott. He returned Thursday.

H. A. Kyle, the veterinary surgeon, has moved to Nemaha. He is living in the house owned by Mrs. Crother, south of THE ADVERTISER editor's dwelling.

Uncle Ben Lesley received word a few days ago of the death of his brother George, at the advanced age of 75 years, 9 months and 17 days. He resided in Missouri.

Mrs. S. A. Scovill is recovering from the injuries received two weeks ago by falling while getting out of a wagon, but is still suffering severely from the effects of the fall.

I. N. Cooper has been walking about with a cane for several days in a very dignified manner, but says it isn't dignity but a lame back that causes him to walk in that manner.

B. F. Neal, one of the leading young attorneys of Auburn, was in town on legal business Wednesday. He took sufficient time to call at this office and talk politics for a few minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marple, of Yates Center, Kas., visited Mrs. Fannie Yackly and other relatives in this vicinity for several days last week and the first of this week, starting for home Tuesday.

We acknowledge a pleasant call on Monday from H. E. Peery, populist candidate for county clerk. The only thing we know of that can be charged against Henry is his politics and his associations with such fellows as John Dundas, Bob Smith and other pops.

L. D. Wheelon, who is marshal of White Cloud, Kansas, gave us a social call Wednesday. He had been visiting at Auburn for a few days and was on his way back to White Cloud.

Wm. Burgess, who lived in Nemaha a short time about a year ago, moving from here to Missouri and from there to Iowa, has returned to Nemaha. He failed to find as good a country.

Alex. Robison, the South Auburn merchant, has an advertisement on the fifth page that will interest you if you need any clothing, furnishing goods or anything else in his line. Read it.

Stephen Cooper has bought John Harper's interest in the livery stable and dray business. John Elliott is now foreman in the business. John Harper will move on a farm and feed cattle this winter.

Miss Mollie Tourtelot informs us that she will be in Nemaha again in about six weeks. Those wishing to consult a first class optician will do well to call on her. Due notice will be given of her next visit.

Mrs. Weddel asks us to request farmers and others not to tie their horses to her fence, as part of the fence has been torn down several times by teams that were hitched to it, causing her considerable trouble and some expense to get it repaired.

George Fablinger and Ben Burress were campaigning in Nemaha Tuesday and gave this office a social call. They reported an enthusiastic meeting at Peru Monday night, and an encouraging reception wherever they go. They express themselves as being confident of republican victory all along the line.

Dr. Keeling reports the birth of a 9 pound girl to Mr. and Mrs. Will Swan on last Saturday, October 12th. It is hard to tell who feels the proudest, the parents, Grandpa and Grandma Swan, Grandpa and Grandma Hacker, or Greatgrandpa and Greatgrandma Maxwell. May the little one live to be a comfort and a blessing to the parents.

Walt Jarvis has been under the care of Dr. E. O. Smith, of Kansas City, Mo., a specialist in the treatment of cancer, for several months. The left eye has been taken out, also several pieces of bone. A few days ago another operation was performed to remove the proud flesh, and Dr. Smith thinks the cancer is now cured. Walt has suffered terribly for a long time and we hope he has found relief.

WEDDING BELLS.

Shortly after seven o'clock Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rabe Elliott, in this city, Rev. E. S. Chamberlain pronounced the words which joined in holy matrimony Mr. Paul Argabright and Miss Lula Elliott.

The wedding march was played by Miss Cora Argabright, a sister of the groom. The bride was tastefully dressed in white silk and the groom wore the customary black. After the congratulations were over the guests were invited to the dining room where they partook of an elegant supper.

Both the young people are well and favorably known, having always lived in this community. They will make their home on the farm in Aspinwall precinct. The good wishes of a host of friends follow them.

A GUEST.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock our former citizen, C. V. Tourtelot, of Sterling, will lecture at the Christian church on what he saw and heard during his recent trip to Boston as a delegate to the national convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. The lecture will doubtless be very interesting and instructive.
Everybody is invited. The young people of Nemaha and vicinity are especially urged to be present.

NOW

I am very much in need of money and must have what is due me on account, so am obliged to ask every one indebted to me to call at once and settle.

MRS. THEO. HILL.

LADIES.

When you come to Auburn bring all your Jewelry, which we will clean and polish and make it look almost like new, for which we make NO CHARGE S H AVEY & Co, Auburn, Neb.

The Methodist ladies' aid society has decided to give a supper at the poor farm Thanksgiving night for the purpose of raising money to pay off the remainder of the church extension loan.
At the time the church was built a loan of $250 at 6 per cent interest was secured from the church extension fund. This was to be paid at the rate of $50 a year and interest. In June, 1891, when the church was dedicated, the ladies' aid society assumed the payment of this obligation. The last payment is due January 1st, 1896. The ladies have to raise $20 or $25 more to meet this payment and want to make it at this supper. This will put the church entirely out of debt.

Bring us your old gold and silver rings and watch cases. We pay you full value for them.

S H AVEY & Co, Auburn, Neb.

I have taken charge of the Nemaha Roller Mills, and am prepared to do custom grinding of all kinds on short notice. Feed grinding 8 cents per 100.
Give me a trial. I will guarantee to please you in quality of work, and treat you white.

FRANK M. SCHULTZ.

FRIENDS,

I will be in Nemaha Saturday and Monday, October 19th and 21st, with a nice large stock of Cloaks. Will be able to fit large or small on days of sale.
